NOTE: The information contained herein has been obtained from sources deemed reliable and is believed to be accurate. However, no express or implied warranty is made or may be inferred from any such representation. Dimensions, square footage and acreage contained herein are more or less. Prospective purchasers are encouraged to perform their own due diligence, in advance of the auction, regarding the permitted uses of the property.

GENERAL INFORMATION:

628 Portland Street is an end-of-group shell building next to the Babe Ruth Museum, two blocks from Camden Yards and two blocks from University of Maryland Baltimore. The location is very well demanded among University of Maryland students and staff, in addition to those working at other large and small companies in the immediate area. Access to major commuter routes is optimal, with I-395, I-95, MD-295 and I-83 all easily accessible from the location. The building has been gutted, partially re-framed and with further stabilization efforts, leaving a blank canvas for development as a multi-unit or single family residence.

LOCATION:

The property is located in the Ridgely's Delight neighborhood in South Baltimore. Nearby neighborhoods include Barre Circle, Washington Village – Pigtown, University of Maryland, the Stadium Area & Entertainment District, Otterbein and Federal Hill. The property is ideally situated among some of Baltimore's most well-known institutions and destinations, including Camden Yards, M&T Bank Stadium, the Baltimore Convention Center, and the aforementioned University of Maryland Baltimore Campus, which includes a hospital, medical school, law school, biomedical research campus and more. The Babe Ruth Birthplace and Museum is immediately behind the property. Access to major commuter routes is excellent, with relatively immediate access to I-395, I-83 straight down Pratt Street and many other significant commuter routes in the immediate proximity. Ridgely's Delight itself is a National Historic District, and CHAP tax credit eligible, with history going back about 200 years. The neighborhood is home to about 400 residences, and is well known for its historic architecture in addition to the proximity to the Stadiums and UM campus. Please find a link below to the Ridgely's Delight Neighborhood and Association for more information about the neighborhood, in addition to architectural guidelines.

Fronting on Portland Street & Emory Street

All public utilities.

ZONING:

R-8, residential, vacant, formerly approved for two dwelling units

For more information about zoning, please visit: Department of Planning - <https://planning.baltimorecity.gov/>

IMPROVEMENTS:

Three story end-of-group brick rowhome - constructed in 1900 and containing 3,952 square feet of gross building area, according to public tax records. The building is believed to have been expanded in stages, with the original structure being older than the stated date in the tax record.

The building has been gutted with some new framing, new asphalt shingle roof on the three level portion of the building and some stabilization work completed on joists and subfloor. The property is otherwise loosely arranged as two dwelling units and in need of full build-out.

TITLE:

In fee simple; sold free and clear of all liens.

TAXES:

Current annual real estate taxes are $6,940.76, based on a full value tax assessment of $294,100.

SUMMARY TERMS OF SALE:

Please see the contract of sale for complete terms.

Live Auction Bidders - a $20,000 deposit, payable by cashier's check, will be required of the purchaser at time and place of sale. The deposit shall be increased to 10% of the purchase price with 24 hours at the Auctioneer's office (wire or cashier's check).

Online Auction Bidders - a $20,000 deposit, payable by cashier's check or wire, will be required of all online bidders prior to the start of the live auction. The deposit will be held in escrow until the completion of the auction and will be retained from the winning bidder. Other bidder deposits will be returned within one business day. Interested parties who do not provide a deposit in advance as stated above will not be permitted to bid. The deposit shall be increased to 10% of the purchase price by cashier's check or wire transfer by 4:00 P.M. on the day of auction. Please see this auction's web page for the Deposit Escrow Agreement: <https://ajbillig.com/auction/628-portland-street/>

Deposit funds shall be held by A. J. Billig & Co., LLC. Balance to be paid in cash at settlement, which shall take place within 45 days. If payment of the deposit or balance does not take place within the specified time, the deposit shall be forfeited and the property may be resold at the risk and expense of the Purchaser. Interest to be charged on the unpaid purchase money, at the rate of 12% per annum, from date of contract to date of settlement. All adjustments, including taxes, all other public charges and assessments payable on a monthly or annual basis, and sanitary and/or metropolitan district charges, if any, to be adjusted for the current year to date of contract and assumed thereafter by the Purchaser. The property will be sold in "AS IS" condition, and subject to easements, agreements, restrictions or covenants of record affecting same, if any. The Property will be sold subject to Baltimore City violation notices, if any. Purchaser assumes the risk of loss from the date of contract forward. The Purchaser waives and releases the Seller, the Auctioneers, and their respective agents, successors and assigns from any and all claims the Purchaser and/or its successors and assigns may now have or may have in the future relating to the condition of the property, including but not limited to the environmental condition thereof. The Purchaser agrees to waive the right of inspection for lead paint, as provided under current Federal and State law. If the Seller is unable to convey good and marketable title, the Purchaser's sole remedy in law or equity shall be limited to the refund of the deposit. Upon refund of the deposit this sale shall be null and void and of no effect, and the Purchaser shall have no further claim against the Seller or Auctioneers. Recordation costs, transfer taxes and all costs incidental to settlement to be paid by the Purchaser. Time is of the essence. A 5% buyer's premium will be added to the final bid price.

PURCHASING REAL ESTATE AT AUCTION

The following information is provided by A. J. Billig & Co., Auctioneers to assist you in understanding your purchase of a property at public auction. The material in this form is general in nature and does not limit your obligations under the contract of sale that you will be required to sign.

TERMS OF SALE: Your responsibilities as a purchaser have been advertised prior to the day of sale and will be read by the Auctioneer at the time of sale. Additional terms may be announced on the day of sale or may be posted at the sale site. The auctioneer will make important announcements regarding the property and your obligations as a purchaser. Please feel free to ask any questions regarding these terms. Failure to comply with any of the terms of sale may cause you to forfeit your deposit and be responsible for the expenses to resell the property, as well as any deficiency incurred.

CONDITION OF PROPERTY: The property will be sold "AS IS." Unless otherwise announced, the sellers make no representations or warranties about the condition of the property. The sellers will not make any repairs.

DEPOSIT: Your deposit will be credited toward the purchase price. If you do not comply with the "TERMS OF SALE," either published or within the contract of sale, you might lose all or part of your deposit. In addition, if you fail to settle for the property you might be obligated to pay the expenses to resell the property, including any deficiency resulting therefrom. If the "TERMS OF SALE" require you to increase your deposit above the amount specified, the Auctioneer will likely accept your personal or business check for the difference on the day of sale. Otherwise, you can bring, wire or messenger certified funds for the increased deposit within the time stated.

EXPENSES: You may be responsible for the expenses of owning the property as of the date of sale or as of the date of settlement, including taxes, utility costs and insurance. You may be required to pay interest on the amount of the purchase price, less the amount of your deposit, from the date of the sale to the date you settle for the property. We recommend that you obtain a fire insurance binder on the property immediately as of the date of sale. The purchaser will pay all of the settlement expenses, including title fees and recording costs.

SETTLEMENT: The settlement or closing period is specified within the terms of sale. If settlement is based on ratification by a Court, the ratification period is typically forty-five to sixty days, but might take longer. You will be expected to settle for the property within the specified time.

FINANCING: It is the purchaser's responsibility to obtain financing. If you plan to use a mortgage to purchase the property, we recommend that you apply for the loan immediately. If the bank must take longer than the specified time to complete the loan, the sellers may extend settlement for a short period if you can provide proof of a loan commitment. If you do not obtain the financing within the specified time for settlement, you will be in default of your contract of sale.

BIDDING PROCEDURE: At the conclusion of the announcement and question period, the auctioneer will solicit bids for the property. Bids are generally made either orally or by raising a hand. Bidding increments are made in amounts acceptable to the auctioneer, who may set a minimum bidding increment as the sale progresses. Any bid that is merely a nominal or fractional advance may be rejected by the auctioneer if in his judgement it may affect the sale injuriously. If a dispute arises between two or more bidders, the auctioneer shall decide in favor of one of the bidders, or immediately re-offer the property.

NOTE: The information contained herein has been obtained from sources deemed reliable and is believed to be accurate. However, no express or implied warranty is made or may be inferred from any such representation.
