GENERAL INFORMATION:

4013 Falls Road is a 25' wide parking lot with front and rear entry located at the northern end of the Hampden Neighborhood in North Baltimore. With R-7 residential mixed-use zoning, the property is very well situated for redevelopment as a single family residence, multi-family apartment building, commercial storefront or remain in the current posture as a well-located parking lot. Hampden has been among Baltimore's most "buzz-worthy" neighborhoods over the past couple of decades, bolstered by countless developments, and both new and vanguard retail and dining options. For commercial uses, the site also features great visibility with significant foot, bike, e-bike, scooter and automobile traffic. According to MDOT statistics, Falls Road in front of the building has a daily traffic count of 12,510 (AADT). The auction provides a prime opportunity to develop a well-demanded site or buy and hold for future considerations.

LOCATION:

The property is located in the Hampden neighborhood a short distance south of W. 41st Street and about 4 blocks from the recently redeveloped Rotunda retail complex. Surrounding neighborhoods include Roland Park, Hoes Heights and Medfield. Hampden has been a hub of dining, retail shopping and community events for decades. Recent years have brought expansive construction of new housing, redeveloped retail centers and new and updated educational facilities. The location affords excellent proximity to some of Baltimore's largest employers, including Johns Hopkins University and Loyola University of Maryland. Some of the area's most significant recreational facilities are also nearby, including sports complexes for the aforementioned Universities, Druid Hill Park, the Maryland Zoo in Baltimore, Rawlings Conservatory, Wyman Park and Cylburn Arboretum.

PURCHASING REAL ESTATE AT AUCTION

The following information is provided by A. J. Billig & Co., Auctioneers to assist you in understanding your purchase of a property at public auction. The material in this form is general in nature and does not limit your obligations under the contract of sale that you will be required to sign.

TERMS OF SALE: Your responsibilities as a purchaser have been advertised prior to the day of sale and will be read by the Auctioneer at the time of sale. Additional terms may be announced on the day of sale or may be posted at the sale site. The auctioneer will make important announcements regarding the property and your obligations as a purchaser. Please feel free to ask any questions regarding these terms. Failure to comply with any of the terms of sale may cause you to forfeit your deposit and be responsible for the expenses to resell the property, as well as any deficiency incurred.

CONDITION OF PROPERTY: The property will be sold "AS IS." Unless otherwise announced, the sellers make no representations or warranties about the condition of the property. The sellers will not make any repairs.

DEPOSIT: Your deposit will be credited toward the purchase price. If you do not comply with the "TERMS OF SALE," either published or within the contract of sale, you might lose all or part of your deposit. In addition, if you fail to settle for the property you might be obligated to pay the expenses to resell the property, including any deficiency resulting therefrom. If the "TERMS OF SALE" require you to increase your deposit above the amount specified, the Auctioneer will likely accept your personal or business check for the difference on the day of sale. Otherwise, you can bring, wire or messenger certified funds for the increased deposit within the time stated.

EXPENSES: You may be responsible for the expenses of owning the property as of the date of sale or as of the date of settlement, including taxes, utility costs and insurance. You may be required to pay interest on the amount of the purchase price, less the amount of your deposit, from the date of the sale to the date you settle for the property. We recommend that you obtain a fire insurance binder on the property immediately as of the date of sale. The purchaser will pay all of the settlement expenses, including title fees and recording costs.

SETTLEMENT: The settlement or closing period is specified within the terms of sale. If settlement is based on ratification by a Court, the ratification period is typically forty-five to sixty days, but might take longer. You will be expected to settle for the property within the specified time.

FINANCING: It is the purchaser's responsibility to obtain financing. If you plan to use a mortgage to purchase the property, we recommend that you apply for the loan immediately. If the bank must take longer than the specified time to complete the loan, the sellers may extend settlement for a short period if you can provide proof of a loan commitment. If you do not obtain the financing within the specified time for settlement, you will be in default of your contract of sale.

BIDDING PROCEDURE: At the conclusion of the announcement and question period, the auctioneer will solicit bids for the property. Bids are generally made either orally or by raising a hand. Bidding increments are made in amounts acceptable to the auctioneer, who may set a minimum bidding increment as the sale progresses. Any bid that is merely a nominal or fractional advance may be rejected by the auctioneer if in his judgement it may affect the sale injuriously. If a dispute arises between two or more bidders, the auctioneer shall decide in favor of one of the bidders, or immediately re-offer the property.

NOTE: The information contained herein has been obtained from sources deemed reliable and is believed to be accurate. However, no express or implied warranty is made or may be inferred from any such representation.
